Name _____ Date _____

Adjectives and Adverbs

Circle the word that fits: an adjective or an adverb.

The _____ skunk sniffs in the grass.
happy happily

The _____ rabbit digs in the dirt.
carefully careful

The _____ chick naps in the nest.
calm calmly

The spider sits _____ on the web.
proudly proud

The seal naps _____ on the ice.
happy happily

The _____ koala sleeps in the tree.
happily happy

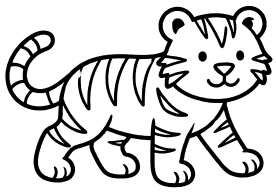

The cat runs _____ in the yard.
happy happily

© 2026 Eggroll Games

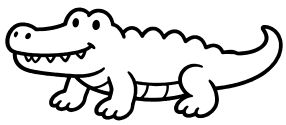

Name _____ Date _____

Adjectives and Adverbs

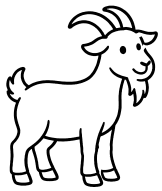

An adverb tells how. Circle the adverb in each sentence.

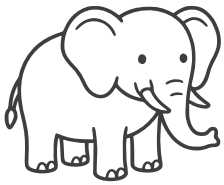

The tiger runs happily in the grass.

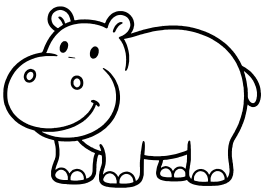

The hungry alligators swim gently in the river.

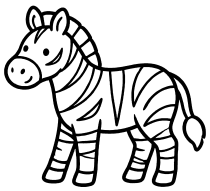

The hungry goats climb slowly on the rock.

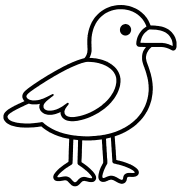

The elephants walk quietly in the grass.

The big hippo splashes loudly in the river.

The zebras walk quietly in the grass.

The seagull walks slowly on the beach.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Adjectives and Adverbs

Circle the word that fits: an adjective or an adverb.

The _____ crab hides in the sand.
happily happy

The pig digs _____ in the mud.
carefully careful

The _____ hen pecks in the yard.
happy happily

The _____ bear climbs up the tree.
brave bravely

The _____ toad hops on the rock.
playfully playful

The worm wiggles _____ in the dirt.
happy happily

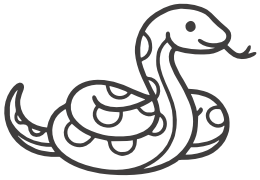

The bee flies _____ in the garden.
happy happily

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Adjectives and Adverbs

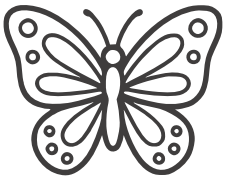

An adverb tells how. Circle the adverb in each sentence.

The snake hides happily in the grass.

The fox digs quickly in the snow.

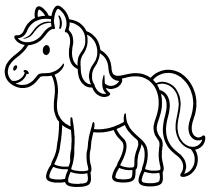

The little butterfly flies quickly in the garden.

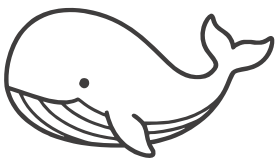

The giraffe runs happily in the grass.

The big otter splashes loudly in the river.

The little horse sleeps quietly in the barn.

The whales sing loudly in the sea.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Adjectives and Adverbs

Circle the word that fits: an adjective or an adverb.

The happy skunk sniffs in the grass.
(happy) happily

The careful rabbit digs in the dirt.
carefully (careful)

The calm chick naps in the nest.
(calm) calmly

The spider sits proudly on the web.
(proudly) proud

The seal naps happily on the ice.
happy (happily)

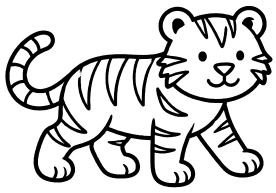

The happy koala sleeps in the tree.
happily (happy)

The cat runs happily in the yard.
happy (happily)

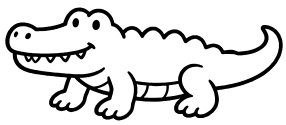

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Adjectives and Adverbs

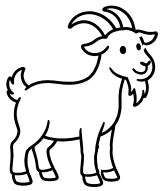

An adverb tells how. Circle the adverb in each sentence.

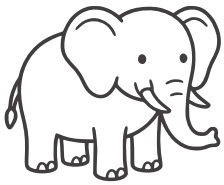

The tiger runs happily in the grass.

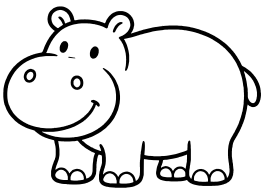

The hungry alligators swim gently in the river.

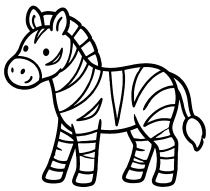

The hungry goats climb slowly on the rock.

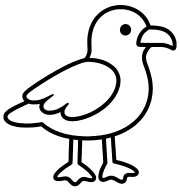

The elephants walk quietly in the grass.

The big hippo splashes loudly in the river.

The zebras walk quietly in the grass.

The seagull walks slowly on the beach.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Adjectives and Adverbs

Circle the word that fits: an adjective or an adverb.

The happy crab hides in the sand.

happily happy

The pig digs carefully in the mud.

carefully careful

The happy hen pecks in the yard.

happy happily

The brave bear climbs up the tree.

brave bravely

The playful toad hops on the rock.

playfully playful

The worm wiggles happily in the dirt.

happy happily

The bee flies happily in the garden.

happy happily

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Adjectives and Adverbs

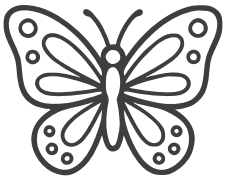

An adverb tells how. Circle the adverb in each sentence.

The snake hides happily in the grass.

The fox digs quickly in the snow.

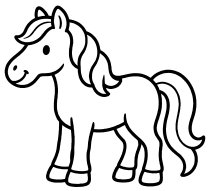

The little butterfly flies quickly in the garden.

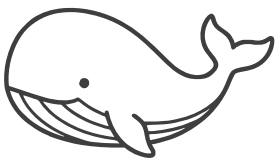

The giraffe runs happily in the grass.

The big otter splashes loudly in the river.

The little horse sleeps quietly in the barn.

The whales sing loudly in the sea.

© 2026 Eggroll Games