Name _____ Date _____

Compare Two Characters

Write what is true of each character, and of both. Then answer the question.

Character 1

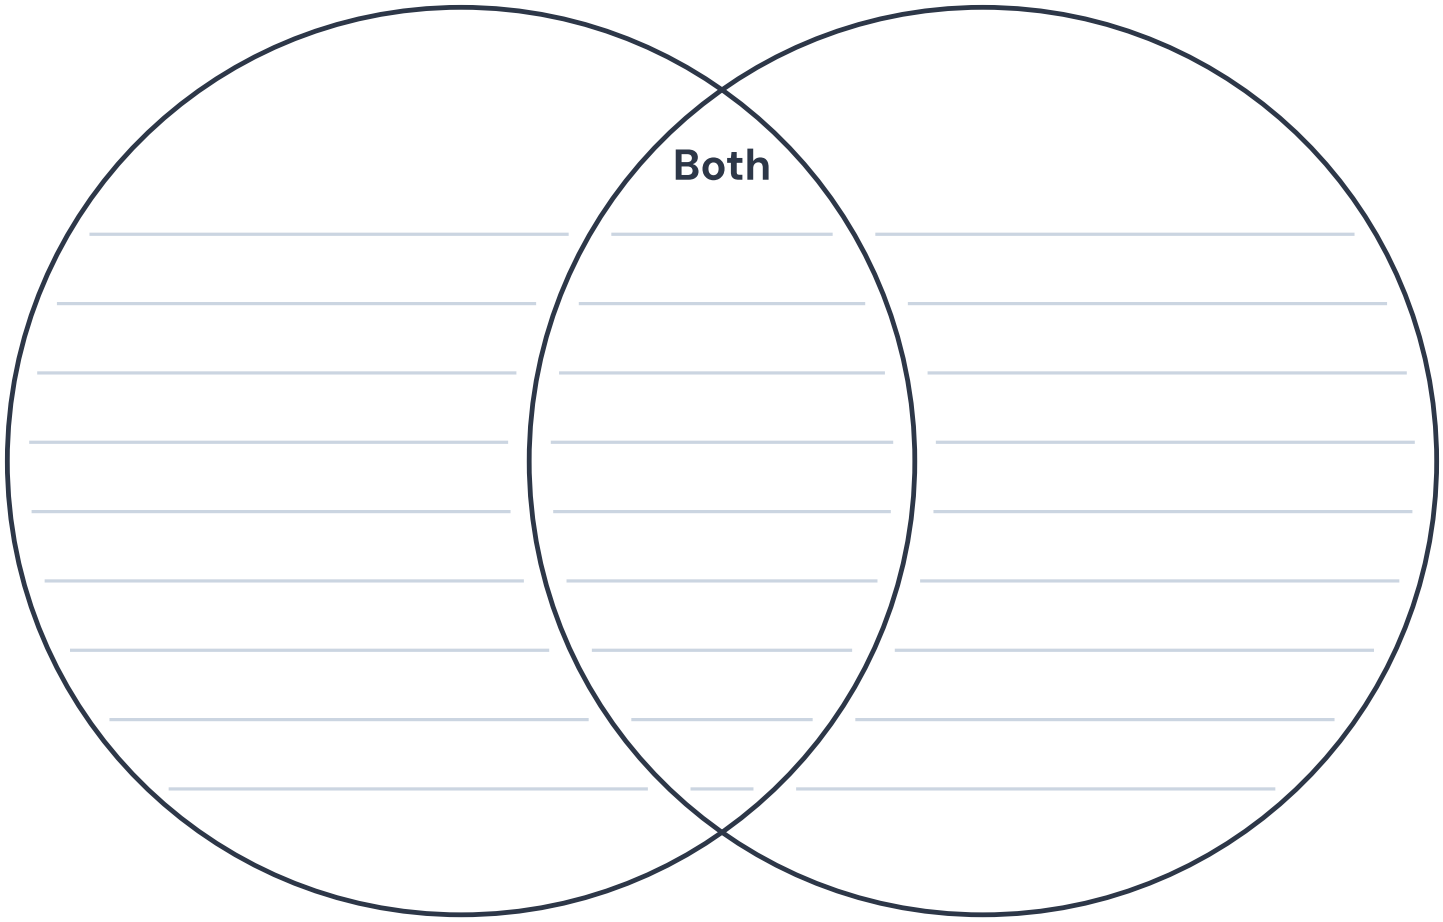

_____

name

Character 2

_____

name

How do the two characters respond differently to a problem?

_____

_____

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

First Person and Third Person

Compare a story told in the first person with one told in the third person.

	First person	Third person
	_____ title	_____ title
Who tells it?
Words that show it I, me, we or he, she, they
What the narrator knows
What we don't find out
How it feels to read

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

The Narrator's Point of View

Tell who tells the story and how that shapes what you read.

Title

Who tells the story?

First or third person?

What the narrator thinks or feels about the events

An event told by the narrator

How another character might tell it

How the narrator's point of view changes the story

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Tales from Two Cultures

Compare two tales from different places: characters, events and themes.

	Tale 1	Tale 2
	_____ title	_____ title
Where it is told Main characters
The problem
A pattern of events a trick, three tries, a race
How it ends
Theme

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Same Theme, Two Stories

Read two stories with the same theme. Show how each one teaches it.

The theme

Story 1 title

Story 2 title

How Story 1 shows the theme

How Story 2 shows the theme

How the two stories are alike and different

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

The Text and Another Version

Compare a story with a play, film, comic or reading of it.

	The text	The other version
	_____ title	_____ title
What kind is it? book, play, film, comic
What it shows that the other doesn't
What it leaves out
How characters are shown
Which I liked better, and why

© 2026 Eggroll Games