Name _____ Date _____

Conjunctions

Circle the conjunction that makes sense.

Do you want soup _____ salad for lunch?

so or because

I like to paint, _____ my sister likes to sing.

until because but

The bees buzzed _____ we walked by the hive.

or but when

We will be late _____ we hurry.

unless so because

The cat was hungry, _____ it meowed at its bowl.

or so but

We will go to the beach _____ it is sunny.

if or but

It was raining, _____ we played inside.

so or until

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Conjunctions

Is the underlined conjunction coordinating or subordinating?

Wash your hands before you eat.

subordinating coordinating

I like to paint, but my sister likes to sing.

subordinating coordinating

We went outside although it was cold.

coordinating subordinating

The owl hoots at night, and it sleeps in the day.

coordinating subordinating

The hen sat on her eggs until they hatched.

subordinating coordinating

The puppy is small, but it can run fast.

subordinating coordinating

We ate lunch after we finished our work.

subordinating coordinating

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Conjunctions

Join the two sentences with the conjunction in the box.

so

It was raining.
We played inside.

so

The snow melted.
The grass was wet.

but

The puppy is small.
It can run fast.

so

The cat was hungry.
It meowed at its bowl.

but

I like to paint.
My sister likes to sing.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Conjunctions

Circle the conjunction that makes sense.

You can have an apple _____ a pear.

because or so

Mom cooked dinner _____ we set the table.

while or but

We stayed inside _____ the storm was over.

until so but

Leo was tired _____ he stayed up late.

but because or

The puppy is small, _____ it can run fast.

but because so

We packed sandwiches _____ apples for the trip.

because until and

Wash your hands _____ you eat.

or but before

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Conjunctions

Is the underlined conjunction coordinating or subordinating?

We stayed inside until the storm was over.

subordinating coordinating

We packed sandwiches and apples for the trip.

coordinating subordinating

The ice melted because the sun was hot.

coordinating subordinating

The snow melted, so the grass was wet.

subordinating coordinating

You can have an apple or a pear.

coordinating subordinating

We ate lunch after we finished our work.

subordinating coordinating

The hen sat on her eggs until they hatched.

coordinating subordinating

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Conjunctions

Circle the conjunction that makes sense.

Do you want soup ___or___ salad for lunch?

so (or) because

I like to paint, ___but___ my sister likes to sing.

until because (but)

The bees buzzed ___when___ we walked by the hive.

or but (when)

We will be late ___unless___ we hurry.

(unless) so because

The cat was hungry, ___so___ it meowed at its bowl.

or (so) but

We will go to the beach ___if___ it is sunny.

(if) or but

It was raining, ___so___ we played inside.

(so) or until

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Conjunctions

Is the underlined conjunction coordinating or subordinating?

Wash your hands before you eat.

(subordinating) coordinating

I like to paint, but my sister likes to sing.

subordinating (coordinating)

We went outside although it was cold.

coordinating (subordinating)

The owl hoots at night, and it sleeps in the day.

(coordinating) subordinating

The hen sat on her eggs until they hatched.

(subordinating) coordinating

The puppy is small, but it can run fast.

subordinating (coordinating)

We ate lunch after we finished our work.

(subordinating) coordinating

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Conjunctions

Join the two sentences with the conjunction in the box.

so

It was raining.
We played inside.
It was raining, so we played inside.

so

The snow melted.
The grass was wet.
The snow melted, so the grass was wet.

but

The puppy is small.
It can run fast.
The puppy is small, but it can run fast.

so

The cat was hungry.
It meowed at its bowl.
The cat was hungry, so it meowed at its bowl.

but

I like to paint.
My sister likes to sing.
I like to paint, but my sister likes to sing.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Conjunctions

Circle the conjunction that makes sense.

You can have an apple ___or___ a pear.

because (or) so

Mom cooked dinner ___while___ we set the table.

(while) or but

We stayed inside ___until___ the storm was over.

(until) so but

Leo was tired ___because___ he stayed up late.

but (because) or

The puppy is small, ___but___ it can run fast.

(but) because so

We packed sandwiches ___and___ apples for the trip.

because until (and)

Wash your hands ___before___ you eat.

or but (before)

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Conjunctions

Is the underlined conjunction coordinating or subordinating?

We stayed inside until the storm was over.

subordinating coordinating

We packed sandwiches and apples for the trip.

coordinating subordinating

The ice melted because the sun was hot.

coordinating subordinating

The snow melted, so the grass was wet.

subordinating coordinating

You can have an apple or a pear.

coordinating subordinating

We ate lunch after we finished our work.

subordinating coordinating

The hen sat on her eggs until they hatched.

coordinating subordinating

© 2026 Eggroll Games