Name _____ Date _____

Homophones

Circle the word that fits the sentence.

I need a _____ of socks.

pair pear

We go to the library once a _____.

week weak

The wind _____ my hat off.

blew blue

Let us _____ at the park.

meat meet

The truck will _____ the broken car.

toe tow

I have _____ brother.

one won

The goat ate the _____ apple.

whole hole

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Homophones

Draw a line from each homophone to what it means.

flower	is sure of four	a boy child
rode	the number 4
knows	in this place
here	went on a horse or bike son	to pay money for buy	the bloom of a plant

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Homophones

One word is the wrong homophone. Circle it. Write the right word.

Grandpa told us a tail about a clever crow.

_____

Can you sea the owl in the tree?

_____

A bare sleeps all winter.

_____

A spider has ate legs.

_____

This gift is four you.

_____

Their sun is six years old.

_____

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Homophones

Circle the word that fits the sentence.

The sky is _____ today.

blew blue

The rabbit hid in a _____.

hole whole

The baby bird was too _____ to fly.

weak week

Whales swim in the deep _____.

sea see

Can you _____ the birds sing?

hear here

The truck will _____ the broken car.

tow toe

She _____ all the words to the song.

nose knows

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Homophones

Draw a line from each homophone to what it means.

eight	●	●	the bloom of a plant
buy	●	●	went on a horse or bike won	●	●	food from animals
flower	●	●	a fruit
meat	●	●	the number 8
rode	●	●	came in first pear	●	●	to pay money for

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Homophones

One word is the wrong homophone. Circle it. Write the right word.

The tree was bear after the leaves fell.

_____

Grandpa told us a tail about a clever crow.

_____

Mix the flower and the eggs.

_____

The pair was sweet and juicy.

_____

Our team one the game.

_____

Put your boots hear by the door.

_____

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Homophones

Circle the word that fits the sentence.

I need a pair of socks.

pair pear

We go to the library once a week .

week weak

The wind blew my hat off.

blew blue

Let us meet at the park.

meat meet

The truck will tow the broken car.

toe tow

I have one brother.

one won

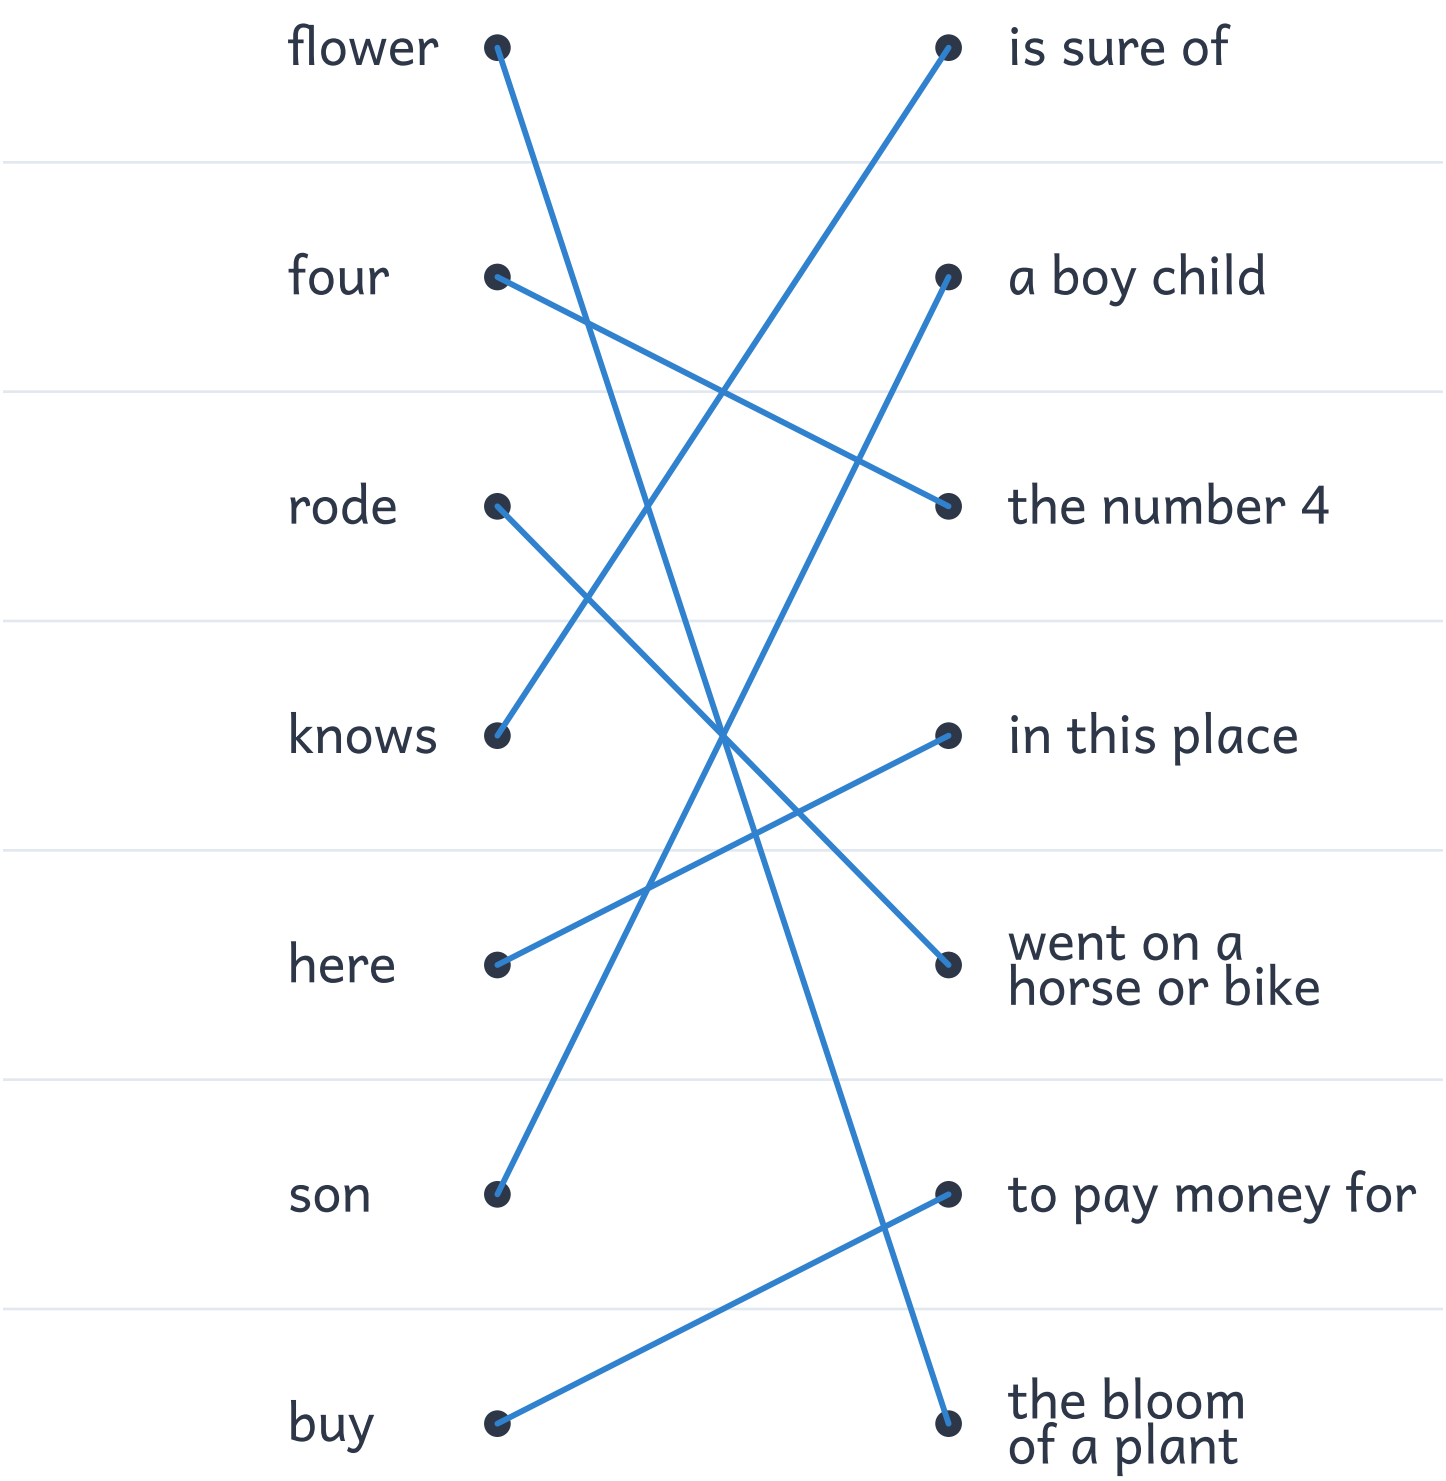

The goat ate the whole apple.

whole hole

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Homophones

Draw a line from each homophone to what it means.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Homophones

One word is the wrong homophone. Circle it. Write the right word.

Grandpa told us a tail about a clever crow.

tale

Can you sea the owl in the tree?

see

A bare sleeps all winter.

bear

A spider has ate legs.

eight

This gift is four you.

for

Their sun is six years old.

son

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Homophones

Circle the word that fits the sentence.

The sky is blue today.

blew (blue)

The rabbit hid in a hole.

(hole) whole

The baby bird was too weak to fly.

(weak) week

Whales swim in the deep sea.

(sea) see

Can you hear the birds sing?

(hear) here

The truck will tow the broken car.

(tow) toe

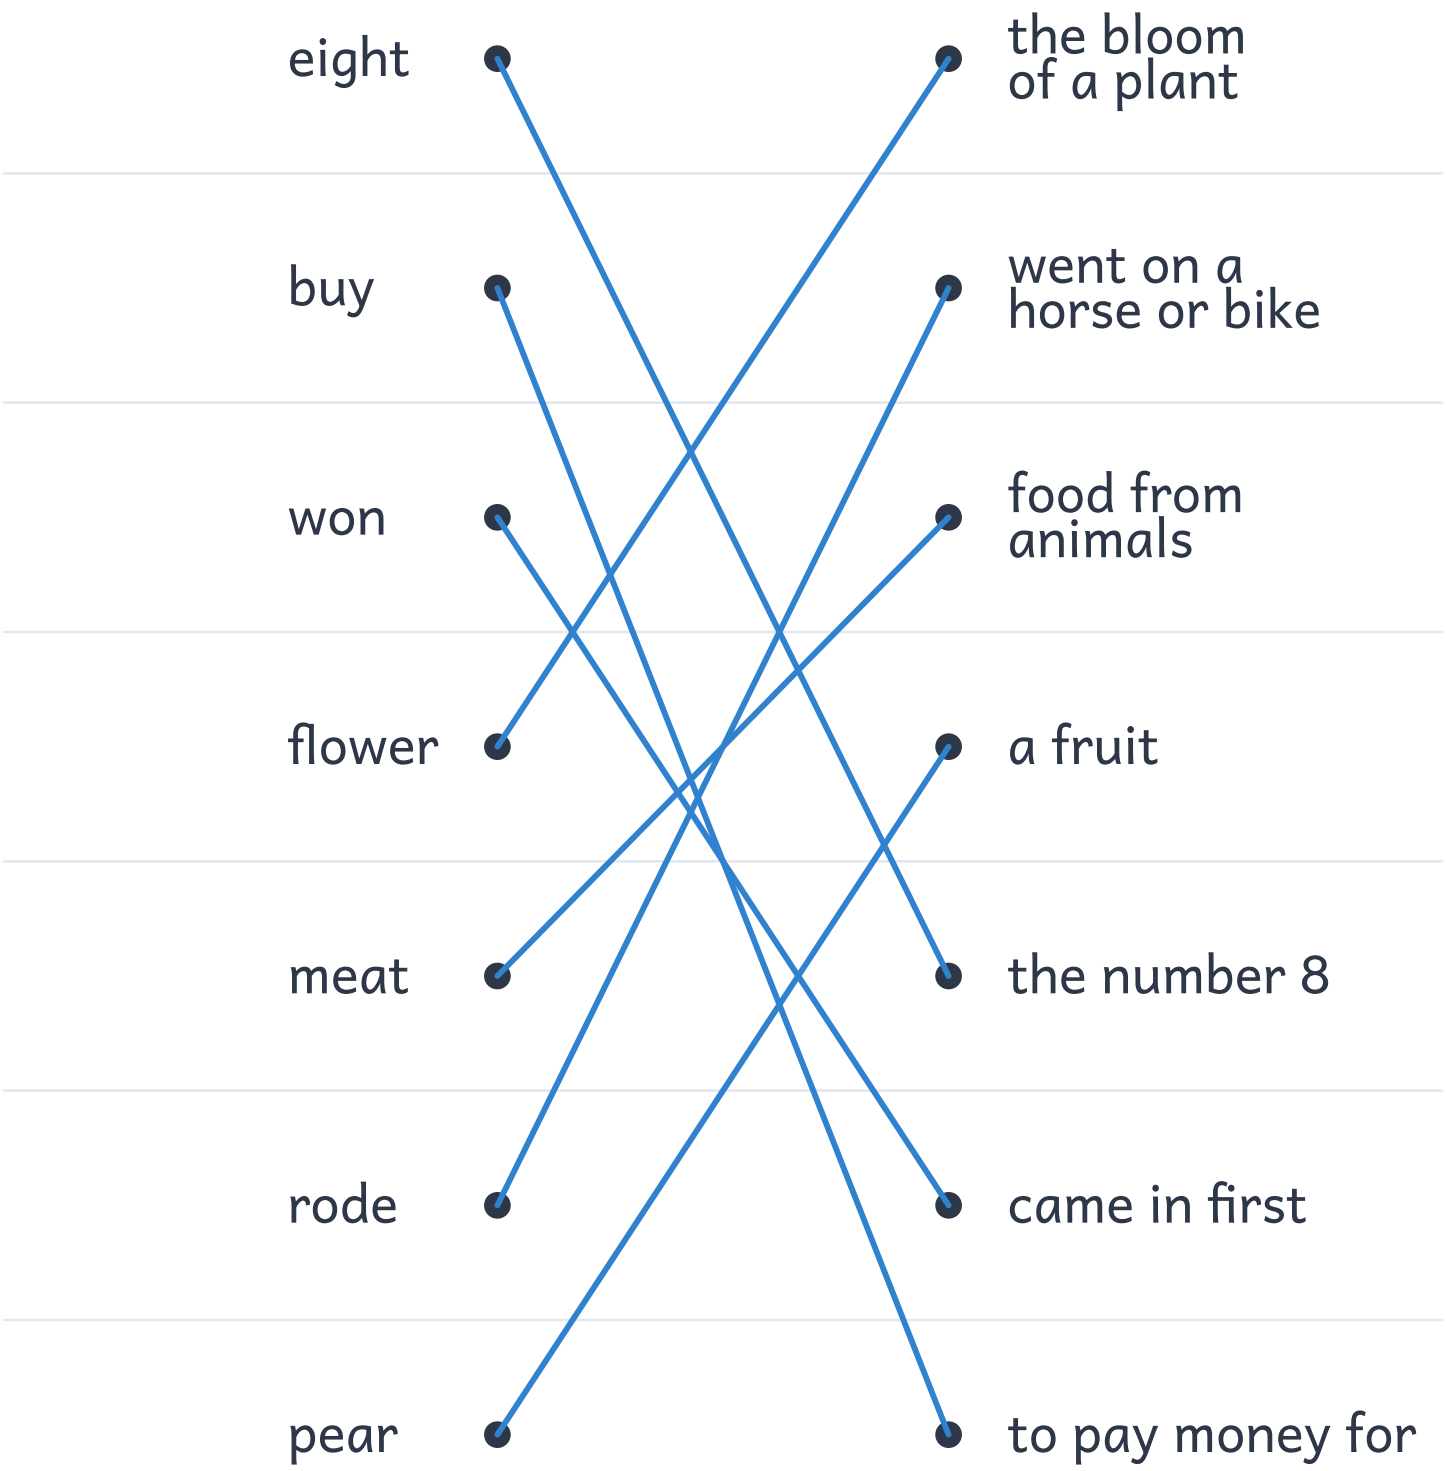

She knows all the words to the song.

nose (knows)

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Homophones

Draw a line from each homophone to what it means.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Homophones

One word is the wrong homophone. Circle it. Write the right word.

The tree was bear after the leaves fell.

bare

Grandpa told us a tail about a clever crow.

tale

Mix the flower and the eggs.

flour

The pair was sweet and juicy.

pear

Our team one the game.

won

Put your boots hear by the door.

here

© 2026 Eggroll Games