Name _____ Date _____

Prepositional Phrases

Circle the two prepositional phrases in each sentence.

After eating, the shark swims in the sea.

In the morning, the foxes dig in the snow.

On a warm day, the otter swims in the river.

At sunrise, the penguins slide on the ice.

In the spring, the spider crawls on the web.

In the summer, the zebra runs in the grass.

After the rain, the horse trots in the field.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Prepositional Phrases

Circle the phrase that tells where or when, as the box asks.

where? On a warm day,
the dolphin jumps in the sea.

when? In the summer,
the seagull walks on the beach.

where? In the spring,
the giraffe runs in the grass.

when? In the morning, the snail
hides under the rock.

when? At sunset, the pigs roll in the mud.

where? At sunrise, the lions
run in the grass.

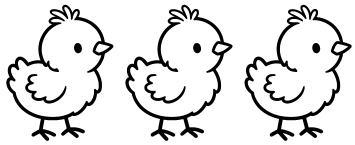

where? After eating,
the koala sleeps in the tree.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

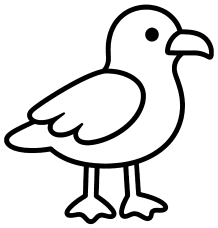

Name _____ Date _____

Prepositional Phrases

A position word tells where. Circle it in each sentence.

The chicks peck in the grass.

The seagull walks on the beach.

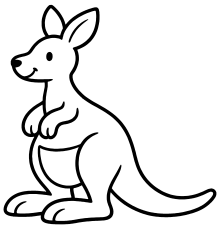

The goats climb up the hill.

The owls fly over the field.

The snail hides under the rock.

The kangaroo hops in the field.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Prepositional Phrases

Circle the two prepositional phrases in each sentence.

After eating, the goose swims in the lake.

At sunset, the swan swims in the lake.

In the spring, the skunk sniffs in the grass.

At sunrise, the cats nap in the sun.

In the morning,
the rabbits dig in the garden.

After the rain, the frog swims in the pond.

On a warm day, the bear swims in the river.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Prepositional Phrases

Circle the phrase that tells where or when, as the box asks.

when? In the morning,
the iguanas nap in the sun.

when? At sunrise, the turtle crawls on the sand.

where? After the rain,
the hens sit on the nest.

where? After eating, the bee
buzzes in the garden.

when? In the spring,
the tigers nap in the sun.

where? In the summer,
the butterflies fly in the garden.

where? On a warm day,
the elephant walks in the grass.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Prepositional Phrases

Circle the two prepositional phrases in each sentence.

After eating, the shark swims in the sea.

In the morning, the foxes dig in the snow.

On a warm day, the otter swims in the river.

At sunrise, the penguins slide on the ice.

In the spring, the spider crawls on the web.

In the summer, the zebra runs in the grass.

After the rain, the horse trots in the field.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Prepositional Phrases

Circle the phrase that tells where or when, as the box asks.

where? On a warm day,
the dolphin jumps in the sea.

when? In the summer,
the seagull walks on the beach.

where? In the spring,
the giraffe runs in the grass.

when? In the morning, the snail
hides under the rock.

when? At sunset, the pigs roll in the mud.

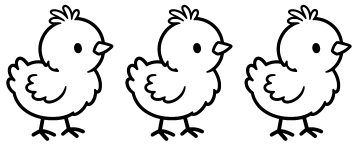

where? At sunrise, the lions
run in the grass.

where? After eating,
the koala sleeps in the tree.

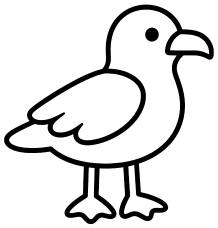

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Prepositional Phrases

A position word tells where. Circle it in each sentence.

The chicks peck (in) the grass.

The seagull walks (on) the beach.

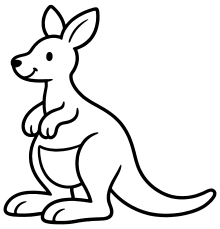

The goats climb (up) the hill.

The owls fly (over) the field.

The snail hides (under) the rock.

The kangaroo hops (in) the field.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Prepositional Phrases

Circle the two prepositional phrases in each sentence.

After eating, the goose swims in the lake.

At sunset, the swan swims in the lake.

In the spring, the skunk sniffs in the grass.

At sunrise, the cats nap in the sun.

In the morning,
the rabbits dig in the garden.

After the rain, the frog swims in the pond.

On a warm day, the bear swims in the river.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Prepositional Phrases

Circle the phrase that tells where or when, as the box asks.

when? In the morning, the iguanas nap in the sun.

when? At sunrise, the turtle crawls on the sand.

where? After the rain, the hens sit on the nest.

where? After eating, the bee buzzes in the garden.

when? In the spring, the tigers nap in the sun.

where? In the summer, the butterflies fly in the garden.

where? On a warm day, the elephant walks in the grass.

© 2026 Eggroll Games