Name _____ Date _____

Pronoun Agreement

Circle the pronoun that stands for the underlined words.

The king waved because _____ saw a friend.

she it he

The girl smiled when the puppy licked _____.

her him it

The boy rode _____ bike to school.

her his its

The squirrels hid _____ nuts under the tree.

its their our

The boys washed _____ hands before lunch.

their her its

The puppies ran back to _____ mom.

their our its

The kids hoped that _____ would win the race.

she it they

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Pronoun Agreement

Circle the words the underlined pronoun stands for.

My sister cleaned her room after dinner.

Mom put on her coat.

The owls built their nests in the tree.

The cats licked their paws.

Dad lost his hat at the park.

The queen said that she would bake bread.

Grandma packed her lunch for the trip.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Pronoun Agreement

Write the pronoun from the box that stands for the underlined words.

their	him	he	its

The fox dug _____ den in the snow.

My brother asked the coach to help _____.

The dogs wagged _____ tails.

My friends lost _____ hats at the park.

The cats licked _____ paws.

Grandpa hoped that _____ would win the race.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Pronoun Agreement

Circle the pronoun that stands for the underlined words.

Ana and I cleaned _____ rooms after dinner.

his our their

The squirrel hid _____ nuts under the tree.

their its our

The girls rode _____ bikes to school.

their her its

Mia and Leo waved because _____ saw a friend.

it she they

My friends put on _____ coats.

their its her

The dogs wagged _____ tails.

their our its

Grandpa asked the coach to help _____.

it her him

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Pronoun Agreement

Circle the words the underlined pronoun stands for.

The kids packed their lunches for the trip.

The fox dug its den in the snow.

The girls washed their hands before lunch.

The kittens ran back to their mom.

The owls built their nests in the tree.

The king smiled when the puppy licked him.

My sister said that she would bake bread.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Pronoun Agreement

Circle the pronoun that stands for the underlined words.

The king waved because he saw a friend.

she it (he)

The girl smiled when the puppy licked her.

(her) him it

The boy rode his bike to school.

her (his) its

The squirrels hid their nuts under the tree.

its (their) our

The boys washed their hands before lunch.

(their) her its

The puppies ran back to their mom.

(their) our its

The kids hoped that they would win the race.

she it (they)

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Pronoun Agreement

Circle the words the underlined pronoun stands for.

(My sister) cleaned her room after dinner.

(Mom) put on her coat.

(The owls) built their nests in the tree.

(The cats) licked their paws.

(Dad) lost his hat at the park.

(The queen) said that she would bake bread.

(Grandma) packed her lunch for the trip.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Pronoun Agreement

Write the pronoun from the box that stands for the underlined words.

their	him	he	its

The fox dug its den in the snow.

My brother asked the coach to help him.

The dogs wagged their tails.

My friends lost their hats at the park.

The cats licked their paws.

Grandpa hoped that he would win the race.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Pronoun Agreement

Circle the pronoun that stands for the underlined words.

Ana and I cleaned ___our___ rooms after dinner.

his (our) their

The squirrel hid ___its___ nuts under the tree.

their (its) our

The girls rode ___their___ bikes to school.

(their) her its

Mia and Leo waved because ___they___ saw a friend.

it she (they)

My friends put on ___their___ coats.

(their) its her

The dogs wagged ___their___ tails.

(their) our its

Grandpa asked the coach to help ___him___ .

it her (him)

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Pronoun Agreement

Circle the words the underlined pronoun stands for.

The kids packed their lunches for the trip.

The fox dug its den in the snow.

The girls washed their hands before lunch.

The kittens ran back to their mom.

The owls built their nests in the tree.

The king smiled when the puppy licked him.

My sister said that she would bake bread.

© 2026 Eggroll Games