Name _____ Date _____

Quotation Marks in Speech

Write the quotation marks and commas.

Can we go to the park? Kai wondered.

Grandpa called I see a rainbow!

Mia answered It is my turn.

I found a shell on the beach Dad whispered.

When the bell rings whispered Kai we line up at the door.

After lunch said Dad we can go to the park.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Quotation Marks in Speech

Is it direct (the speaker's own words) or indirect (told by someone)?

Mom said that she liked the book.

indirect direct

Grandpa asked where his red hat was.

direct indirect

Dad yelled, “The bus is here!”

direct indirect

Dad cheered, “Watch out for the puddle!”

indirect direct

Grandpa asked if we could go to the park.

direct indirect

“Where is my red hat?” Ava asked.

direct indirect

Dad said that he was hungry.

indirect direct

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Quotation Marks in Speech

Circle the sentence with its marks in the right places.

"If it rains," whispered Raj, "we will stay inside."
"If it rains" whispered Raj, "we will stay inside."
"If it rains, whispered Raj, "we will stay inside."

Grandpa called, That "was so much fun!"
Grandpa called, "That was so much fun!"
Grandpa called, "That was so much fun!

"We won the game!" Raj cheered.
We "won the game!" Raj cheered.
"We won the game"! Raj cheered.

Raj wondered, Is "it time for lunch?"
Raj wondered, "Is it time for lunch?"
Raj wondered, "Is it time for lunch?

"Look at the big whale"! Kai called.
"Look at the big whale! Kai called.
"Look at the big whale!" Kai called.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Quotation Marks in Speech

Write the quotation marks and commas.

The bus is here! shouted Sam.

May I have an apple? asked Omar.

Look called Grandma
the bus is here!

Sam yelled That was so much fun!

Leo answered The
frog is on the log.

I think replied Dad
we should go now.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Quotation Marks in Speech

Is it direct (the speaker's own words) or indirect (told by someone)?

"How many eggs are in the nest?" asked Raj.

direct indirect

Mom told us that she found a shell.

indirect direct

Dad said that it was time for lunch.

direct indirect

"What time is it?" Ava asked.

direct indirect

Dad told us that the bus was late.

direct indirect

Grandma shouted that the bus was here.

indirect direct

"I am ready to go," said Zoe.

indirect direct

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Quotation Marks in Speech

Write the quotation marks and commas.

"Can we go to the park?" Kai wondered.

Grandpa called, "I see a rainbow!"

Mia answered, "It is my turn."

"I found a shell on the beach," Dad whispered.

"When the bell rings," whispered Kai, "we line up at the door."

"After lunch," said Dad, "we can go to the park."

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Quotation Marks in Speech

Is it direct (the speaker's own words) or indirect (told by someone)?

Mom said that she liked the book.

(indirect) direct

Grandpa asked where his red hat was.

direct (indirect)

Dad yelled, “The bus is here!”

(direct) indirect

Dad cheered, “Watch out for the puddle!”

indirect (direct)

Grandpa asked if we could go to the park.

direct (indirect)

“Where is my red hat?” Ava asked.

(direct) indirect

Dad said that he was hungry.

(indirect) direct

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Quotation Marks in Speech

Circle the sentence with its marks in the right places.

"If it rains," whispered Raj, "we will stay inside."
"If it rains" whispered Raj, "we will stay inside."
"If it rains, whispered Raj, "we will stay inside."

Grandpa called, That "was so much fun!"
Grandpa called, "That was so much fun!"
Grandpa called, "That was so much fun!

"We won the game!" Raj cheered.
We "won the game!" Raj cheered.
"We won the game"! Raj cheered.

Raj wondered, Is "it time for lunch?"
Raj wondered, "Is it time for lunch?"
Raj wondered, "Is it time for lunch?

"Look at the big whale"! Kai called.
"Look at the big whale! Kai called.
"Look at the big whale!" Kai called.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Quotation Marks in Speech

Write the quotation marks and commas.

"The bus is here!" shouted Sam.

"May I have an apple?" asked Omar.

"Look," called Grandma,
"the bus is here!"

Sam yelled, "That was so much fun!"

Leo answered, "The
frog is on the log."

"I think," replied Dad,
"we should go now."

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Quotation Marks in Speech

Is it direct (the speaker's own words) or indirect (told by someone)?

"How many eggs are in the nest?" asked Raj.

(direct) indirect

Mom told us that she found a shell.

(indirect) direct

Dad said that it was time for lunch.

direct (indirect)

"What time is it?" Ava asked.

(direct) indirect

Dad told us that the bus was late.

direct (indirect)

Grandma shouted that the bus was here.

(indirect) direct

"I am ready to go," said Zoe.

indirect (direct)

© 2026 Eggroll Games