Name _____ Date _____

Subject-Verb Agreement

Circle the verb that agrees with the subject.

The lions _____ in the grass.

nap naps

The books on the shelf _____ new.

are is

Yesterday, the zebras _____ in the grass.

was were

The spiders _____ webs.

has have

The kangaroos _____ in the grass.

hop hops

They _____ in the lake.

swim swims

The alligator and the pig _____ in the mud.

naps nap

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Subject-Verb Agreement

Each sentence has a verb that does not agree. Write the right verb.

The dogs has bones.

The kids on the bus is happy.

The dolphins splashes in the sea.

She run in the yard.

The whale and the shark swims in the sea.

The worm dig in the dirt.

The hippos is in the mud.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Subject-Verb Agreement

Circle the verb that agrees with the subject.

The elephant _____ in the grass.

walk walks

Yesterday, the goose _____ in the field.

was were

The dogs _____ bones.

has have

The cats _____ up the tree.

climb climbs

The swan and the dog _____ in the pond.

swim swims

The ducks in the pond _____ hungry.

is are

We _____ on the rug.

sit sits

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Subject-Verb Agreement

Each sentence has a verb that does not agree. Write the right verb.

The koalas sleeps in the tree.

Yesterday, the chicks was in the yard.

The fox run in the snow.

The plate of cookies are on the table.

They digs in the yard.

The owls has nests.

The spider and the ant crawls on the log.

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Name _____ Date _____

Subject-Verb Agreement

Circle the verb that agrees with the subject.

The seagulls _____ on the beach.

walk walks

The spider _____ a web.

have has

The goats _____ on the rock.

are is

The plate of cookies _____ on the table.

are is

The spiders _____ on the web.

sit sits

They _____ on the bed.

nap naps

The whale and the penguin _____ in the sea.

swims swim

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Subject-Verb Agreement

Circle the verb that agrees with the subject.

The lions nap in the grass.

(nap) naps

The books on the shelf are new.

(are) is

Yesterday, the zebras were in the grass.

was (were)

The spiders have webs.

has (have)

The kangaroos hop in the grass.

(hop) hops

They swim in the lake.

(swim) swims

The alligator and the pig nap in the mud.

naps (nap)

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Subject-Verb Agreement

Each sentence has a verb that does not agree. Write the right verb.

The dogs has bones.

have

The kids on the bus is happy.

are

The dolphins splashes in the sea.

splash

She run in the yard.

runs

The whale and the shark swims in the sea.

swim

The worm dig in the dirt.

digs

The hippos is in the mud.

are

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Subject-Verb Agreement

Circle the verb that agrees with the subject.

The elephant walks in the grass.

walk walks

Yesterday, the goose was in the field.

was were

The dogs have bones.

has have

The cats climb up the tree.

climb climbs

The swan and the dog swim in the pond.

swim swims

The ducks in the pond are hungry.

is are

We sit on the rug.

sit sits

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Subject-Verb Agreement

Each sentence has a verb that does not agree. Write the right verb.

The koalas sleeps in the tree.

sleep

Yesterday, the chicks was in the yard.

were

The fox run in the snow.

runs

The plate of cookies are on the table.

is

They digs in the yard.

dig

The owls has nests.

have

The spider and the ant crawls on the log.

crawl

© 2026 Eggroll Games

Subject-Verb Agreement

Circle the verb that agrees with the subject.

The seagulls walk on the beach.

(walk) walks

The spider has a web.

have (has)

The goats are on the rock.

(are) is

The plate of cookies is on the table.

are (is)

The spiders sit on the web.

(sit) sits

They nap on the bed.

(nap) naps

The whale and the penguin swim in the sea.

swims (swim)

© 2026 Eggroll Games